

KING OF PRUSSIA

LIFE. AND ALL ITS STORES.

FAST FACTS

1. King of Prussia Mall officially opened in 1963.
2. The super-regional shopping complex houses 3 million square feet of retail space.
3. The Plaza is home to 250 stores, The Court 125, and The Pavilion 11, creating a grand total of nearly 400 fabulous stores and restaurants.
4. Parking at King of Prussia is plentiful. The mall has over 13,376 parking spaces.
5. Throughout its three centers, King of Prussia offers 11 ATM Machines.
6. King of Prussia Mall boasts 5 full-scale Court areas; Bloomingdale's Court, Lord & Taylor Court, Macy's Court, Nordstrom Court and JCPenney Court.
7. King of Prussia Mall, in an effort to ensure the safety of each and every shopper, has an Automated Defibrillation Device and Emergency Oxygen available at each of its three Customer Service Centers.
8. King of Prussia Mall is a popular Philadelphia tourist attraction, and tourists comprise 20% of the mall's shoppers.
9. King of Prussia's Web site, www.kingofprussiamall.com, offers directory assistance, a dining guide, tourism information, current event listings, online gift card purchases, style guides featuring the season's hottest looks for you and your home, the eStyle newsletter, and more.

FUN FACTS

1. The footprint of King of Prussia Mall is large enough to accommodate five of the Great Pyramids.
2. There is enough marble flooring in King of Prussia Mall to cover the entire flight deck of the aircraft carrier U.S.S. America.
3. Two Louisiana Superdomes would fit on the acreage occupied by King of Prussia Mall.
4. The amount of poured concrete in King of Prussia Mall would fill the dome of the U.S. Capitol Building twice (from the top of the dome to the floor).
5. King of Prussia Mall serves enough meals per year to feed every fan at every home game of a NBA team for several years.
6. The electrical wire used in the redevelopment of King of Prussia Mall would stretch from New York to Hartford, CT or from Indianapolis to Louisville, KY.
7. The number of sodas sold at King of Prussia Mall each year would fill up five Olympic-size swimming pools.
8. If you walked every corridor and every isle of King of Prussia Mall, it would be the equivalent of walking across Manhattan.